As you continue to progress and grow your business, it is important to keep in mind how significant the insurance industry is to our state. Ohio has more than 1,700 insurance companies, 17,000 insurance agencies, and 205,000 insurance agents that write in excess of $76 billion in insurance premiums each year. These facts and figures prove that your work is vital to our state's economy and to the consumers that need your expertise when making decisions that impact their lives.
